“The partnership with Acquis is a natural fit, and we are excited to combine forces to support joint customers’ needs,” said Patrick Taylor, CEO of Oversight Systems. “With Acquis and Oversight, customers benefit from a force multiplier to transform how they control risks and management challenges inherent to T&E programs.”

Oversight and Acquis are both Concur Partners. Acquis couples its expertise in process strategy and control, along with global Concur implementations and overall T&E advisory support. Oversight seamlessly integrates with Concur to provide greater visibility for managing a T&E program.

“Our consultants stay current on innovative technologies that bring value to our clients and help them achieve their compliance goals - Oversight is a natural inclusion to these conversations,” said Joanna Sears, Acquis Managing Director. “The right technologies coupled with the right processes ensure our customers have a sustainable model to managing T&E programs.”

Oversight monitors more than $2 trillion in expenditures annually for some of the world’s largest organizations. The web-based application applies sophisticated artificial intelligence-based analytics to expense transactions to identify fraud, non-compliant purchases, and wasteful spending. Through increased visibility into trends and behavior, Oversight pinpoints opportunities for ongoing improvement in spend program compliance.
